

Good morning,

There have been some slight changes to students returning to the Academy with our focusing being on ensuring all students are back in the Academy before the end of next week. Please find below some very important information about the dates and the timings for the students to return starting on Monday 7th September 2020. Please ensure that you are clear on when your child should be returning. Your child will attend their induction day and then continue to attend every day after.
